Opening observations

- How hard it is to ‘be still’ when all is raging within!

- Struggles with God’s providence and will have Bible companions!

CHRIST’S COMMAND HIS DISCIPLES IN THE THIRD PETITION

I. not to wrestle in seeking a change of His Divine will

II. but to wrestle for the full surrendering to His Divine will

I. IN PRAYER WE ARE NOT TO SEEK A CHANGE OF HIS DIVINE WILL

A. God’s will is eternal – sovereign – unchangeable – wise – irresistible

1. Every event takes place because God willed it: Is. 46:10; Eph 1:11

2. Even the most awful or evil events this world has witnessed, took place because God willed it: Acts 2:23; 3:18; 4:28; 21:11-14

- Augustine: God’s work is so great that in wonderful and unspeakable manner even what happens against His revealed will (sin) does not occur without His will!

- Berkhof: The problem of God’s relation to sin remains a mystery for us, which we cannot solve simply by trying to construct theological schemes that narrow God’s power over heaven and earth

- Bavinck: Sin is the greatest contradiction tolerated by God in His creation, yet used by Him in the way of justice and righteousness as His instrument for His glory.

4. Above means that every event in our life He willed: Belgic: art 13

B. What influence should this doctrine have on our daily prayer life?

1. Will arguing our case before His throne change God’s eternal will or decree? (Job 13:3; 23:1-5)

2. May we beg God to change circumstances He obviously permitted?
a. consider Is. 38:2-5; 2 Cor. 12:8-10

3. If our prayers for a change of circumstances is answered, was that the result of a change in God’s will or decree? (Gen. 22:1-14)

II. Christ's teaches us that we wrestle for a full surrender to His will

- A. This petition focuses on our responsibility to the will of God
1. God's will is made known in His Word and to a certain extent through His Providence

  2. Our responsibility to renounce our own will and without murmuring obey His good and perfect will revealed in His Word
    - a. this petition applies to God's will in providence

    - b. it also applies to every detail of His revealed will for our life/faith
- B. Jesus points to angel's readiness to do His will as additional argument
1. Thy will ... as it is in heaven (Ps. 103:20)
    - a. How do the angels carry out God's will? (Gen. 28:12; Heb. 1:14)
      - their ministry is far more extensive than we will ever know

      - not all of them are sent on pleasant tasks

      - yet each rejoices to do the will of the LORD
- C. Nothing reveals our fallen human natures more than call to submit
1. How easy to we find it to give or miss out an underserved mercy?

  2. Yet God's grace is more than sufficient to make us submit!
    - a. fear not to hide your struggles – bring them before Him!

FINAL APPEAL ...

- A. You are either a submitter to or rebel against God's will!
1. What is God's clearest will for each of you/me?

  2. Heed His clear warnings ...
    - And that servant, which knew His lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes! (Luke 12:47)

    - He that being often reprov'd, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy (Prov. 29:1)

    - Today if ye will hear His voice, harden not your hearts. (Heb. 3:15)
